DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by MacLennan(US4117436).

MacLennan in fig. 9 disclosed a displacement device provided with a first part with a primary coil 160 and a second part which can be moved in relation to the first part, the second part being provided with a secondary coil 162 which can be moved in relation to the primary coil and which is electrically connected to an electrically driven element, wherein at least one of the coils 160 is an elongated coil which extends in a travel direction, and wherein the other coil 162 can be moved in the travel direction (vertically) in relation to the first coil, wherein the secondary coil can further be moved in relation to the primary coil in at least a direction (clockwise) that extends transversely to the travel direction; wherein the secondary coil can further be moved in relation to the primary coil in another direction (counterclockwise) that extends transversely to the travel direction; wherein a size (diameter) of the other coil 162 along a width (diameter) of the elongated coil is larger than the width of the elongated coil.

3. Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Dudley (US2881408).

Dudley disclosed a displacement device provided with a first part with a primary coil 25 and a second part which can be moved in relation to the first part, the second part being provided with a secondary coil 27 which can be moved in relation to the primary coil and which is electrically connected to an electrically driven element, wherein at least one of the coils 25 is an elongated coil which extends in a travel direction, and wherein the other coil 27 can be moved in the travel direction (vertically) in relation to the first coil, wherein the secondary coil can further be moved in relation to the primary coil in at least a direction (clockwise) that extends transversely to the travel direction; wherein the secondary coil can further be moved in relation to the primary coil in another direction (counterclockwise) that extends transversely to the travel direction.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-4 are allowed.
5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
